Chili Contestant Rules

1. Each contestant is asked to bring their own card table, crock pot, serving utensils, an extension cord, an empty jar to collect tickets and chili which is pre-cooked to the contest. Each contestant should supply at least 2 gallons of their chili for sampling.
2. Each cook is responsible for his/her own set-up and take down. We ask that chili be ready for sampling by 1:00 p.m.
3. We are encouraging contestants to decorate their table with some Chili Round-Up creativity.
4. Each person will need to provide an 8 ½ x11 "Chili Bio" for display purposes. This should state: 1) The person's name for his/her chili 2) The contestant's name 3) The city he/she is from 4) Rating of how spicy the chili is (Flaming Hot, Hot, Medium, Mild,) and 5) Any other interesting facts or information the contestant would like to share.
5. Contest is limited to 20 cooks.
6. Contestants must keep watch over their own chili throughout the competition. If a contestant needs to leave the table during chili sampling times he or she must find someone to cover his/her table.
